IN digesting the following sheets particular care has been taken to prevent any material errors, with respect to arranging the hundreds, parishes and freeholders names, alphabetically. The poll and check books have been compared with particular attention before the compilation was begun; some errors have however unavoidably escaped, occasioned by many of the clerks and checks having so confounded places of residence with the situation of freeholds, that it was impossible to rectify all their mistakes; what enquiry, personal knowledge, or locality of situation could accomplish, has been industriously attended to; notwithstanding which, it has been discovered since this book was printed off, that the Rev. MR. LEWIS, of Sandon, instead of being entered as resident in that parish, is placed in the list of London voters, and in that manner both clerk and check had entered his name on their books, which unluckily did not appear till after the Chelmsford hundred was printed. MR. BOAZ GUY, of Chelmsford, stands in the parish of Felsted, which is also the clerk's fault; and if these should be the only errata to be found, it will not only be a peculiar satisfaction to the printers, but much beyond their expectations, though they are sorry even for these, and wish they could possibly have been avoided.

The irregular manner in which freeholders came to the hustings, without attending to the hundreds in which their freeholds lay, occasioned misunderstandings between them and the clerks, some of whom in their confusion had frequently made a freeholder vote for all the candidates, so that had not the books been minutely examined, misplaced votes would have been more numerous than can possibly be apprehended; and it is hoped the necessity of having them as correct as possible will apologize for delaying the publication.

3,194 Freeholders Voted.

The trifling difference between the numbers declared after casting up the poll on the day of election, and those stated above, is occasioned by the misplaced and treble votes, and the omissions in the clerk's books, as mentioned in the preface.
